Schiller Language School

Berlin • Bonn

Learn German in Germany & study at a German university
WHY SCHILLER LANGUAGE SCHOOL?

Schiller Language School is a German language school based in Berlin (capital of Germany) and Bonn (former capital) and was founded with the aim of preparing graduated high school students for university admission and their life in Germany.

We offer intensive German language courses for university preparation combined with strong visa-support and university admission services for international students who wish to continue with their further education and studies in Germany.

Our teachers are specialised in preparing students for the university entrance examinations telc, TestDaF and DSH as well as for Studienkolleg.

Once students passed our language course and the examination, we will help them find the most suitable university.
